The infinite monkey theorem states that a monkey hitting keys at random on a typewriter keyboard for an infinite amount of time will almost surely type a given text, such as the complete works of William Shakespeare. In fact, the monkey would almost surely type every possible finite text an infinite number of times. However, the probability that monkeys filling the observable universe would ...

Shakespeare can be an intimidating subject to introduce. Isn't the language archaic and the doesn't high quality mean high difficulty? Actually, the language isn't that difficult when it's read (that is, interpreted) by an experienced reader. The profound themes within plots were created not as pure art, but also to entertain the masses.
