1. Adversity. In 2013, the United States reached an educational milestone. For the first time, a majority of the country's public school students – 51 percent of them, to be precise – fell below the federal government's threshold for being "low income," meaning they were eligible for a free or subsidized school lunch.

Bring back family game night! Weâ€™ve launched a national effort that calls upon families in America to put down their mobile devices, turn off their TVs and put away their laptops and tablets for one night to sit around the kitchen table or family room playing their favorite board games in an attempt to re-engage the family in real conversation and nostalgic fun.
